Effective July 1, 2006

Your Annual Out-of-Pocket Spending Limit

Single or Married with only one spouse in the plan: When your out-of-pocket expenses for co-payments reach either $2,000 or 10% of your gross annual household income, whichever is less, you will no longer be required to pay co-payments for the remainder of the plan year.

Married with both spouses in the plan: When your combined out-of-pocket expenses reach either $3,000 or 10% of your gross annual household income, whichever is less, you will no longer be required to pay co-payments for the remainder of the plan year.
